Specific Instructions

Who Must File

A government or governmental entity and certain nongovernmental entities that exercise self-regulatory powers must file a separate Form 1098-F, Fines, Penalties, and Other Amounts, with the IRS for each fine, penalty, or other amount in excess of an amount determined by the Secretary that is paid in relation to any violation of law or investigation into potential violation of law, pursuant to a court order or agreement.

Online fillable Copies B and C. To ease statement furnishing requirements, Copies B and C have been made fillable online in a pdf format available at IRS.gov/Form1098F. You can complete these copies online for furnishing statements to recipients and for retaining in your own files.

Statements to be furnished to payers. If you are required to file Form 1098-F, you must provide a statement to the payer. For more information about the requirement to furnish a statement to the payer, see part M in the 2019 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Truncating payer's TIN on statements to payers.

Pursuant to Treasury Regulations section 301.6109-4, all filers of this form may truncate a payer's TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)) on statements to payers. Truncation is not allowed on any documents the filer files with the IRS. A filer's TIN may not be truncated on any form. See part J in the 2019 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.
